

HYDE ROAD YERONGA

Originally built in the 1960s, the group of shops at 92 Hyde Rd has gone through many changes. Historically, tenants of 92 Hyde Rd reflected the requirements of the '70s, '80s and '90s, with diverse tenancies including 4-Square supermarkets, a chemist, butcher, doctor, bakery, green grocer, manufacturing and slot-car racing.

Coop interpreted the building as modern, looking beyond its abandoned appearance, and seeing

The overall external colour palette was reduced to silver and liquorice black – the body of the building slides into shadow and the colour of the interiors are highlighted and become more prominent as you drive by. A colourful ceramic tile detail acts as a cue to enter and connects areas of the building as you move around it.

92 Hyde Rd and its tenants have successfully created a quality destination for residents and visitors to explore - a one-stop location for hair, beauty, health and fitness, and fine cuisine.

